

Date	Please pray for
1 st May	Pakistani Christian Ruqqiya Bibi who had her appeal against a 25-year sentence for blasphemy adjourned to this week. Pray for justice.	The Young Family
2 nd May	the workers that Steve has met in China that they will feel encouraged and strengthened by his visit.	Ali Atashgah
3 rd May	the local elections, particularly in Bicester, that the right people will be elected who will serve the community with integrity.	Angela, Jaiwei, Emma and Yifan Bai
4 th May	the BU Assembly taking place until Sunday that the delegates will hear from God and be built up in their faith. Thank God for all Paul does for the denomination.	Carolyn, Steve, Emily, Alice and Tom Barber
5 th May	Mary and Stephen that they will settle back quickly into life in Bicester.	Ted Bailey
6 th May	all the new people who come to the church. Pray specially for the new friends' tea this afternoon that new people will quickly feel part of the fellowship.	Wendy Becker
7 th May	the young people who are doing exams that they will think clearly and not worry.	Mel Behringer
8 th May	the meeting this evening to plan the fun day in September that the day will be an opportunity to share with the residents in the Keble Road area.	Andrew, Cathy, Rebecca and Oliver Bishop
9 th May	the people of Syria who are under so much pressure at the moment.	Peter Bywater
10 th May	the churches in Bicester, particularly today for Crowded House church.	Janet and Ken Child
11 th May	Pastor Prince and Sujatha that they will have many volunteers to help them both personally and in the work they are doing. Pray for their good health of them all.	Alistair and Jean Christie
12 th May	Sean and Debbie, Kate and Joe that they will be kept safe in the worsening situation	Mary and Stephen Chu
13 th May	Chris Curtis preaching at OBF this morning and Steve preaching at Kings Sutton BC for their anniversary service.	Pete, Suzi and Alba Ciechan
14 th May	the BMS Action team who will be spending this week with us.	Lyn and Philip Clarke
15 th May	the worship leaders meeting this evening that they will know God's presence with them as they plan the next few months.	Bill Cooper
16 th May	the team cycling to raise money for the Kalji Trust from 18 th – 20 th for their safety and good health as well as enjoyment.	Mike, Soonah, James and John Cribb
17 th May	David and Preeti, Alisha and Ashray. Thank God that the business is going so well and pray for all the new employees that they will respond to the message of Jesus.	Chris, Sue and Jenny Curtis
18 th May	those in the church who work in health care in hospitals, care homes or the community that the love of the Lord Jesus will shine through in all their actions.	John Darvell
19 th May	the canal trip today that those going will enjoy one another's company and it will be a fun time together.	Kerrie, Scott, Jamie, Hazel and Matthew
20 th May	our lunch together as we discuss the vision for the future of the church that as God guides us we will listen to one another and hear God's voice. Thank God for OBF and pray that we will move forward under the Holy Spirit's guidance.	Viviane, Anderson, Matthew and Simon Dodorico
21 st May	the schools in Bicester, particularly today for Langford Village School.	Jeff Elliott
22 nd May	the town centre initiative (and Ian Biscoe of Emmanuel Church as he heads it) that Sainsbury's and Cherwell District Council will enthusiastically support it.	Ben Ford
23 rd May	the Church meeting this evening that we will be of one mind in all decisions that are made.	The Foster family
24 th May	the pastoral teams who care for those in the church. Thank God for them all and pray that they will be aware of those who need a little extra help.	Ann and Phil, Amy, Cara, Jess and Corlan
25 th May	the work of the chaplaincies in the hospitals and prisons around Bicester.	Amanda and Des Frater
26 th May	the work of the BMS and particularly Mark (orthopaedic) and Andrea (obs and gynae) Hotchkin, surgeons working in Chad and their daughters Ruth and Rebecca.	John, Yvonne, Caleb and Micah Goff
27 th May	us all as we take communion this morning that we will be reminded again of what Jesus did for us.	Gill and Paul Goodliff
28 th May	the Food Bank that the food will be given just as they need it and no-one will go without.	Sean, Debbie, Kate and Joe Mullens
29 th May	those in the fellowship who have been bereaved in recent months.	Rob Foster
30 th May	Christians in Sudan who are being forced to move South although borders are closed to them. Geraf Bible School (where Susan Paton's sister works) has been burnt down.	Pastor Prince and Sujatha
31 st May	Children affected by exposure to pornography. Pray for the campaign to make service providers block pornography at source (www.safetynet.org.uk)	David, Preeti, Alisha and Ashray How